Vice President's Message for April 2016

Happy April everyone!

Opening day is coming up quickly. Hopefully you have dusted off all your gear and are getting ready for the campout May 13-15 at Brown's Town in Bishop. We are having a potluck; Hot Dogs and Hamburgers provided by HFFF. Bring your best recipe for the Chili Cook-off.

Major fly hatches for April & May are as follows:
Pheasant Tail Nymph, RS2 BWO, Halfback Emerger BWO, Poxyback Nymph BWO, Barr's BWO Emerger, Brook's Baetis Sprout, BWO Sparkle Dun, BWO Parachute Dun, Blue Wing Olive, Hackle Stacker BWO, Baetis Quigley Cripple, and BWO CDC Cripple

As you can see in the Officers section we still have a few vacant positions that need to be filled; such as Conservation, Project Healing Waters, etc. Please contact myself or Mike Hayes if you wish to volunteer.

This Month's Speaker

Our guest speaker is Mike Tuttle, owner and guide for Big Bear Fishing Adventures. Mike has been a guide for 20 years and very experienced in the San Bernardino mountain area. Mike will be covering the Carp fishery in Big Bear Lake.

Fly Tying

Fly tying will be held at Barry's house on Sunday, April 17th. See Barry at the meeting if you need directions. Asking a $5 donation for pizza.

S. B. County Fair

Just a reminder, entries for the San Bernardino County Fair fly tying contest are due by April 15th. We are also looking for volunteers to man the booth May 21st-30th.

Upcoming Events

Don't forget in June we have a streamside presentation by Guy Jeans, owner/guide/instructor, a Certified Casting Instructor with the International Federation of Fly Fishers. Limited class size, make your reservations early.
